Fennimore Times (Times Topics), June 27, 1928

Miss Florence Fry and Mr Wayne Feakes were married Saturday at 8:00 o'clock at the M.E. parsonage by Rev Bird. The bride's brother, Lester Fry and Miss Faye Feakes, sister of the groom, were witnesses. The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr and Mrs Al Fry. The groom is an employee of the Farmer's Mutual Co-operative creamery and a fine young man in all respect. They spent a few days in Iowa on a wedding trip. Monday night a number gathered at the Fry home and gave them a charivari. Tuesday night the many friends of the happy couple came in and surprised them and left many useful and beautiful gifts. They will make their home here in town. The Times extends congratulations to this worthy young couple.

Fennimore Times, July 11, 1906

Allen G Fry, son of George Fry and wife of Green River, and Miss Henrietta Bowering of this city, were married yesterday morning at 8:30 by Rev Bird at the M.E. parsonage. They were attended by the groom's brother, Lewis Fry and wife. The bride is an accomplished young lady and has been at the Hotel Storrs for some time. She is better known to her friends as Dolly Shalcross. The groom is an excellent and industrious young farmer. The happy couple will make their home with the groom's parents. May their married life be full of sunshine and happiness is the wish of the Times.

Fennimore Times, July 17, 1946

Al Fry's Celebrate 40th Anniversary Children All Come Home for Event Observed Wednesday, July 10
Wednesday July 10, was the 40th anniversary of the marriage of Mr and Mrs Al Fry of this city. In commemoration of the event all the children were home to spend the day with their parents. Mr and Mrs Fry are long-time and highly esteemed residents of Fennimore and enjoy a wide acquaintanceship. Al is in good health but Mrs Fry has not been so well.

Present to help them celebrate were Mr and Mrs Lester Fry and daughter, Elaine, Mr and Mrs Stanley Fry, all of Galena; Mr and Mrs Truman Gorder and children, Marla Kay and Bobby, Platteville; Florence

Feakes and son, Glen and daughters Lavonne and Alice Fay of Fennimore; also Logan Fry at home; besides other relatives and friends.

Mr and Mrs Fry wish to thank everyone who remembered them with the nice cards and gifts they received.
